THE COMING ISSUE. It is now becoming very evident that QUARRELS IN HADICAL LEAGUESall other questions are being subordinated to the one, overshadowing and absorbing all others, of National debt, currency, taxation and finance. The struggle has already commenced in Congress between the bondholders and their opthe New York Herald pithily states it, whether bondholders, representing thousands of millions of bonds, or Statesmen, representing the great mass of the people, are to govern the country. It has reduced liself to the narrow and extremely personal limits of bread for the million, bondage for generations, and accumulated wealth to the bondholders and stockjobbers. Such a question necessathe Radical demagogues have heretofore successful in arraying one section of the country against the other, must now take a minor place and gradually be lost and swallowed up in the paramount consideration of public prosperity, or beggary, which the blundering, corruption and plundering of those in power have forced upon men's minds, with a terrible distinctness. Bread for the people has become the walchword on one side, while gold for the bondholders booms up as the slogan, to be raised on the other.
